Essential Compliance Training Marketing Pack

General and industry advertising copy for online CPD-accredited training

Organisation	Youstar Connect
Issue date	September 2026
Offer	Individual courses from £35 and four-course packages for £99 per employee

This pack provides consistent advertising copy for Youstar Connect's online compliance-training offer. Each customer is contacted before activation to confirm the assigned training and completion period. While the learner account is active, the wider CPD-accredited course library is available at no additional cost.

How to use this pack

- Use the general advert on the main website, at networking events and in broad business campaigns.
- Use the industry versions for paid social advertising, direct outreach, leaflets and local business visits.
- Add the Youstar Connect QR code once the relevant landing page is ready.
- Confirm that course titles match the learning platform before publishing.
- Keep the access and cancellation wording consistent with the current Youstar Connect policy.

Standard advertising terms

Individual-course and package prices are per learner. The assigned course or courses, activation date, completion deadline and access-expiry date are agreed before activation. One assigned course includes at least 14 days' access, two assigned courses include at least 30 days' access, and a four-course package includes at least 60 days' access. Additional courses may be completed while the learner account remains active. Online courses alone do not replace regulated qualifications, employer competency checks or required practical or role-specific training. Practical task-specific instruction may also be required. Full terms apply. Each purchase is a one-off payment per learner for the agreed access period. There is no annual contract or automatic renewal. Renewal is optional.
